Karyn Dillon

Branch Manager – Escrow Officer

Karyn Dillon has spent nearly two decades in the escrow business & has established herself as a highly successful force in our industry. Her nearly 20 years of practical escrow knowledge brings invaluable insight which she applies to each of her transactions.

How does Karyn define success? It's the right blend of organization, managing details and relentless communication. Karyn works hard to provide the ultimate level of customer service so that real estate agents, sellers and buyers feel valued and safe when choosing her on their transactions. Karyn enjoys a combination of technology and face to face customer interaction and is fueled by happy clients and successful closings.

Karyn is a member of the California Escrow Association, which keeps her connected to industry change, is a notary public and is diverse in the many types of escrows she handles; resale, commercial, exchange and probate to name a handful.

Karyn's personality is open and welcoming and she is routinely available outside of normal business hours. When away from the office, Karyn supports our hometown teams, the Padres and Chargers and is mom to an 11 year old son. She and her husband and son enjoy camping and traveling.

"I have known Karyn for almost two decades, and she has always been one of the most professional and caring Escrow Officers I have ever had the pleasure of working with. She has the ability to work with both the sophisticated and the casual clients, and has provided excellent assistance to all of my agents with their transactions over the years."
